Vocational Services Award

Award Information

One of the four cornerstones of Rotary is vocational service. Rotarians are charged to uphold high ethical standards in all their vocational and professional practices, to recognize the worthiness of all useful occupations, and to consider their own occupations as opportunities to serve society.

The Rotary Club of St. John's Northwest advances this ideal through its Vocational Services Award, created to recognize and honour a non-Rotarian from our community who has, through his/her own work, practiced in keeping with the highest ethical standards and strived to help others.

Award Criteria

- Resident of the Avalon Peninsula
- Not a member of Rotary
- Uses his/her profession, occupation, or vocation to benefit society
- Demonstrates passion for and a commitment to the vocation / occupation / profession
- Practice consistently exemplifies and promotes principles of equity and honesty; respect for supportive, collaborative relationships; and a commitment to build good will
- Examples might include (but are not limited to):
 - * Seen by colleagues as a role model and mentor within the vocation;
 - * Practice exemplifies leadership and the highest ideals of the vocation;
 - * Works in creative, imaginative ways to expand the boundaries of the vocation;
 - * Works in ways that clearly benefit a targeted community (local, national, international).

Award: A Paul Harris Fellowship, named for Rotary founder, Paul Harris, will be presented at a special Rotary luncheon held in the recipient's honour. The Paul Harris Fellowship is the highest award a Rotary Club can bestow. A contribution of $1000 U.S. will go, in the recipient's name, to Rotary International's Annual Programs Fund.

Selection Nominations will be reviewed by the Vocational Services Committee, who will select the recipient. The Committee's decision will be final. All deliberations will be confidential.

Deadline for Nominations: April 30, 2007
